Re: MUR 4880

Dear Sir:

This is to acknowledge receipt of and respond to the matter MUR4880 received by me on Feb. 22, 1999.

I deny each and every allegation presented by Mr. Barela concerning any FEC regulation violations by The Conservative Voice, Word Mill Publishing Co. (Word Mill P.R.), Shirlee Pigeon and Tom Pigeon (son of Shirlee Pigeon, not "husband" as indicated in Mr. Barela's statement).

Any political advertisement, including those by Mr. Khoury, which was published in The Conservative Voice, was paid for by the candidate (invoice enclosed). Any advertisement The Conservative Voice placed in any other publication was paid for by The Conservative Voice, which in turn was paid by the ad's participants.

Neither the Conservative Voice nor Word Mill made campaign contributions to the Khoury campaign, in-kind, independent expenditure or otherwise.

There were no in-kind, nor independent expenditure, forms filed since there were no in-kind, nor independent expenditure, contributions made to any campaign.

The Inland Empire Conservative Coalition is no longer in existence and is not affiliated with The Conservative Voice.

Based on the above, I request that no action be taken against Shirlee Pigeon, Tom Pigeon, Conservative Voice, Word Mill Publishing (Word Mill P.R.) or Inland Empire Conservative Coalition.

Sincerely,

Shirlee Pigeon
